I urge speedy action thereon to the end that a definition of our international status as a belligerent nation may be made known and an assertion of all of its rights and a maintenance of its duties in conduct of a public war may be assured."

"Spain treats our reasonable demands as measures of hostility by following it with a complete severance of diplomatic relations. ## ENGLAND IS VERY NEUTRAL.

Proclamation Announcing Neutrality Has Been Posted.

THE SOMERS MUST LEAVE TODAY

The Reported Difficulty of the Boat in Getting a Crew Is Announced Untrue.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, April 25—A proclamation announcing the neutrality of England will be posted at the Mansion House immediately. It is asserted that the Admiralty has instructed the authorities at Davenport dockyard that the United States torpedo boat Somers, now lying at Falmouth, must leave forthwith, the time for departure expiring this afternoon. It is untrue that the Somers is experiencing any difficulty in getting a crew. On the contrary the fact is the boat already has a good crew.

WITHOUT FOUNDATION.

The Report of the Battle Said to Have Occurred Last Friday.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 24—A special to the Times-Union and Citizen from Palm Beach, Florida, says:

It is believed here by every one that the report of the battle off Boynton Friday is without much foundation. Several responsible citizens from that section were here today and said they saw the ships going south but did not hear the report of a single gun.

The only explanation for this report is that a number of workmen were engaged unloading lumber from a wrecked brigantine on Boynton Beach, and that a vessel made direct for the wreck, supposedly to make an examination, when the workmen became frightened and went ashore.

The Bugler Monument.

The monument has arrived at the Battle Ground and is being erected by Thomas Woodroffe. It is of beautiful Mt. Airy granite and is very singular in shape and design; so different from the others that it will attract universal attention. The artistic bronze plate has a raised figure of a bugler boy in its calling Lee's legions to arms with an elegant bugle. It is very pretty indeed; is over three feet high, and two feet wide, is diamond shape, and will be let in the face of the monument. Remember the dedication will be May 6th, 1898, at the Battle Ground. All the college young ladies will go out. The grounds will be gay with flags and bunting.

No Fogysm About Him!

The citizen of Greensboro who was, publicly, on Sunday, offering to bet a dollar that the war with Spain would be forgotten before there were street cars running in this city is truly a public spirited citizen! His influence would go a long way toward building up any enterprise. No trouble to believe in his sincerity when he talks about building up and advancing the city's interest. And his faith in the future of the city is nothing short of marvelous!

Debate Tonight.

The debate on the question: "Resolved, That all negroes should support the nominees of the republican party," will take place tonight at 8 o'clock at St. Matthews church. The debate will be an interesting and entertaining one. Although it is given by the colored people seats will be reserved for any white people who wish to attend. The debaters are: Affirmative, Windsor and Winchester; negative, Page and Gilmer. Go out and hear these debaters discuss a question of great importance to the colored race.

ONLY DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

Why the Query in Saturday's Telegram Was Made.

In the Telegram today appears an answer to our query of Saturday as to who are entitled to vote or take part in the primaries or ward meetings. The query was made on the strength of a statement by a prominent democrat that in the Fifth ward that heretofore any one from fifteen to ninety years of age, irrespective of politics, have been allowed to vote in the ward meetings, and that voters from other wards have been allowed to take part and vote in said ward meetings.

This impressed the writer as being an unwarranted abuse of the principles of the party and of her organization, hence the query. Now, we have the answer, clear and distinct from the chairman that only democrats and residents of a ward are entitled to vote therein. This is the answer we expected and is the only one a true democrat could give. Let there be no such attempted abuses of political rights in the coming ward meetings.

If it is really what the name indicates—a democratic primary—let only democrats vote; but open the doors to any over twenty-one years of age, who will publicly avow a determination to henceforth vote and affiliate in all elections with the democratic party.

We note that as yet Col. Fred Olds, of Raleigh, has not been added to the blockading squadron.

The sea serpent which has its habitat just off the Florida coast must be very unhappy at present.

The Spanish censor in Havana and the American censor at Key West no longer speak as they pass by.

It is to be hoped that the Paris in scouting when a Spanish gunboat appeared did not set the fashion.

Senor Polo's Washington and Toronto interviews supply the very latest instance of "before and after."

Alas, poor Joe Caldwell! The populist press of the state has placed him on its permanent list of monsters.

So soon as the new war tax shall begin operations it is expected that there will be a decided decline in the thirst for gore.

Minister Woodford is doubtless now convinced that there are certain contingencies that cannot be adequately met by diplomacy.

The typewriter and cable in Havana will soon begin their deadly work of strutting the sea bottom with the wreckage of American warships.

It begins to appear that nothing short of an ultimatum can settle the baseball championship between the Universities of North Carolina and Virginia.

Ex-Chairman Pou, of the democratic executive committee thinks the question of fusion should be settled by the state convention. Mr. Pou can rest easy. It will be settled.

If the crews of our warships are to be thoroughly taught the art of being stripped for action before putting to sea, the squadron should be anchored just off shore at one of our seaside resorts.

The quality of Key West dispatches will hardly be greatly improved by that ship loaded with rum which the Associated Press boat Dauntless, towed into port, though it must also be admitted that they cannot be greatly impaired by it.

If any doubt existed as to Spain's having a sufficient casus belli it was removed when the crew of the captured ship was put to work. The only muscles that a Spaniard may exercise without disgrace are those of the inferior maxillary.

Col. W. S. Burgwyn came to see the Governor in regard to his offer to raise a regiment composed of the sons of ex-Confederates.—Col. Olds correspondence.

The colonel would hardly find it an easy matter to make up a regiment which would not be composed for the most part of the sons of ex-Confederates.

The talk about seizing Hawaii is not likely to increase the belief abroad that we do not want Cuba. It could scarcely be called a seizure since Bar-kis is not only willing, but treacherously anxious.

Even the magnificent opportunities afforded by the opening of hostilities for the exercises of the imagination have not created any appreciable diversion in favor of the snake and the fish in these balmy days.

A candidate for mayor of Danville, Va., offers in his announcement to sacrifice himself to the public weal as follows:

Since the passage by the last legislature of the law making it a duty of the mayor to issue all criminal warrants, it will be necessary for him to remain in his office the whole of the day. This I cheerfully promise to do.

We hope the citizens of our neighboring city properly appreciate such heroic self abnegation. It has an aroma as fragrant as the tobacco laden breath of the city itself. Evidently Danville would be a most congenial location for a branch of the society for the prevention of crime.

There appears to be considerable jealousy between the militia officers and those of the regular army. Almost without exception militia regiments have protested against the removal of their present officers and the substitution of West Pointers. This is natural and possibly to a certain extent justifiable.

The West Pointer in times of peace has not impressed himself very favorably upon the civilian. As a rule he is inclined to be somewhat supercilious and to place upon himself an estimate somewhat in excess of his attainments. In only too many cases he thereby renders himself an object of ridicule and dislike. His relations with raw recruits are not likely to be any too pleasant. It should not be forgotten, however, that the trained officer of the right temper is greatly preferable to the man who has been chosen because of mere personal popularity.

Uncle Sam to Gomez.

I am coming, Brother Gomez. I am coming with my boat. And my boats are rammed with thunder, yes, sir-ee! An' I'm going to speak a little piece I think is rather cute; I am coming, Brother Gomez. Wait for me. I ain't much on palaver, an' I ain't no hand to talk. But my guns are fluent 'speaks, an' their lungs are never weak. An' they're coming down to help you in your Argument of Guns; They are coming, Brother Gomez, an' they've got a piece to speak.

I am coming, Brother Gomez, an' I've got a piece to speak; An' no Spaniard will cry "Louder!" I shall speak sufficient plain; An' my little recitation will be heard, I calculate, An' will be distinctly audible in Spain. I have got my piece committed, an' I reckon that I'll speak. Though I'm not a man to bluster or to roar; But my guns have got good voices, an' I think I'll talk through them. An' I don't expect a call for an encore.

—S. W. Foss, in N. Y. Sun.

Spanish Spies Trapped.

Liverpool, April 24.—The following remarkable war story, one of the many in circulation here today, is published by a local press association. Two men supposed to be Spanish spies, arrived here on board the Cunard Line steamer Etruria, under English names, immediately visited the Spanish Consul here and then boarded a train for London. They are said to have been followed by three supposed Americans, who are said to have attacked the Spaniards at the depot for the purpose of securing plans of American fortifications, which the Spaniards were supposed to be carrying.

It is further said that one of the Americans was arrested, and that his two companions are journeying to London on the same train as the Spaniards.

A FLOWER GARDEN.

The Tribute to Mr. James Young Who Appears Here Soon.

At the Academy of Music last Saturday afternoon, in New Orleans, was assembled one of the most brilliant audiences ever seen within the four walls of a play-house. Every seat was sold to see James Young as Claude Melnotte.

It was easy to see with whom the young player was popular; in that vast audience there was not twenty men. The place was crowded with ladies in their latest spring gowns of bright colors, for which New Orleans girls are famous. It was a beautiful sight—it was like a big bouquet of roses.

During the performance Mr. Young received from his fair admirers, fourteen curtain calls and thirty-five floral tributes were thrown upon the stage. At night there was also a large audience to witness Mr. Young's Shylock. At the close of the play the audience arose en masse and called Mr. Young out twice before the curtain, and he was compelled to reply in a neat speech. Yesterday's States reviewing the performance, says:

"Certainly no actor has made a more favorable and pleasing impression on the New Orleans public in many a day. The enthusiasm of the audience had not become subdued when the curtain had fallen on the last and comedy act of the play, and immediately following the dropping of the curtain every person in the large audience rose and applauded unrelentingly, finally inducing Mr. Young, who had donned his street attire, to make a brief and appropriate curtain lecture."

Since the young player's appearance here last season he has won fame and some degree of fortune. Only appearing for one night, Mr. Young will present a matinee of "Lady of Lyons" this afternoon and tonight "The Love of David Garrae" at the Mobile theatre.

This morning Mr. Young will visit the Knott High School and address the young ladies and perhaps give a short reading from Shakespeare. Personally Mr. Young is a charming gentleman, and he has many warm personal friends in Mobile.

Mr. Young will appear in our city May 3d and 4th. Tuesday as David Garrae, Wednesday matinee—Hamlet and Wednesday night—The Lady of Lyons.

NO FRAUD IN THE LEASE.

The Southern Contract for The N. C. Railroad Settled Forever.

The following is the opinion and decision of Judge Simonton who has settled the question of fraud in the ninety-nine year lease of the North Carolina Railroad and settled it forever: "That said agreement of extension or new lease was executed bona fide, without fraud, covin, misrepresentation or malpractice of any sort on the part of the complainant herein or the defendant, the North Carolina Railroad Company or any officer, director or agent of either of the parties thereto, and that the same was and is a valid and subsisting agreement made for and supported by valuable consideration and was and is in all respects binding as between the parties thereto. "Daniel L. Russell and Zebulon Vance Walser and the present directors of the North Carolina Railroad are forever perpetually enjoined and restrained from attempting to break, or threatening to break the lease in any way, shape or form."—Morning Post.

Mr McBride Holt says:

Graham, N. C., July 16, 1897.

Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about 4 years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor.

Who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow until each had to hold for the lane, the little boy having been lanced in three places and at these times, his face at times looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This, however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so often and so favorably, I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs.
Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

Respect,
MCBRIDE HOLT.

General News in a Nutshell.

Markneukirchen, in Saxony, is the only place in the world of which it may be said that violin making constitutes the principal industry. In Markneukirchen and the surrounding villages there are 15,000 people employed exclusively in the manufacture of violins.

Has anybody heard anybody say that anybody of his acquaintance refuses to go to war? asks the New York Times. But what Uncle Sam wants to know is:

How many will offer their services without being personally requested by a conscript squad to turn in and help to whip Spain?

Prince Ami Singh, the prime minister of Cashmere, will visit England this year under the escort of Major Maye, a trusted and prominent official of the government in India, Prince Ami will have an audience with the queen, and will undertake a provincial tour. He is the direct heir to the throne.

A relic of Sir David Brewster, in the shape of a microscope used by him over fifty years ago, has just been presented to the British Museum.

Governor Leedy, of Kansas, said in a speech before a militia company on Monday night last that "it is a disgrace that a board of survey and inquiry has ever been appointed to investigate the destruction of the Maine."
It has always been the populist procedure to return a verdict of guilty before hearing the evidence.

A subscription is being collected in Indiana for the preservation of the Levi Coffin homestead at Fountain City (formerly Newport), which was the most important underground railway station in the state during the years just preceding the civil war.

The following startling announcement is made by one of the most literary of the London evening journals in an article describing the fire precautions at a new amusement house: "A complete set of hydrants and fire appliances will be arranged, and the stage is to be fitted with a double asbestos and steel fire-proof curtain, controllable by one man. The latter is designed to be one of the largest in London, namely, about eighty feet wide and fifty deep."

The responsibility for the following observation rests upon the Boston Transcript: "Our navy is reported to have captured a lumber-laden vessel.
The prize winners are no doubt rejoic-

*THE QUERY ANSWERED.

All Democrats Should Read The Following Ringing Letter.

Communicated.
Editors of The Telegram:

In answer to your inquiry as to who is entitled to vote at next Thursday's primary meetings, I would answer that the call which was printed in the city papers donates that. This call was made by the democratic committee to the democratic voters of this city calling upon them to assemble in their respective wards, and in accordance with the plan of organization that we have operated under for several years which is to select their candidates for aldermen and mayor on Thursday night and then by a delegated meeting on Friday night, the candidates selected were to be confirmed as an entirety and these selections will then become the ticket for which the democratic party becomes responsible and pledges itself to elect. Therefore, I should hold that no one but a democrat had any part or parcel in either of these meetings.

As to the second question, would a citizen of one ward have a right to vote in another ward, I would answer certainly not, a man would have just as much right to live in North Carolina and vote in Virginia as to live in ward No. 2 and vote in No. 1.

And now since the question has arisen, I am glad the friend has turned the attention of the voters to the matter. The town has reached a point where more time and attention should be given to the matters of its government. What is everybody's business is nobody's business and it was for the express purpose of localizing our affairs, that the city was divided up into wards. But has this end been attained? The average citizen knows no more of his own ward's needs than he does of one a mile away. I have no doubt there are to be found voters who could not tell you today without some study who is the representative of his own ward. And right here I believe is the cause of one of our greatest wrongs.

The retiring board of twelve men who have served this city's interest for twelve months, giving their time and what talent they possessed gratuitously will likely go out of office this time, as all others have done, without so much as thanks for their labor and even of the ill will of a few; their honesty, their judgment, their ability, have been the subject of unkind conversation, and criticism of the most uncharitable have been placed upon their best motives, until it is a difficult matter to get a man of any worth to serve on the board.

I believe the board just retiring will compare favorably with any one we have had or will have for some time to come. This board has made mistakes, all others will do the same.
Put the responsibility where it belongs. I believe the way to do this is 1st To find out your ward. 2nd. What are the needs of your ward. 3rd. Ask your neighbor about the needs of your ward. 4th. Do your present aldermen understand your needs and are they willing to legislate in behalf of them and are they capable of so doing. If so, endorse them, not only at your primary, but at all times and under all circumstances. If they are not, get rid of them and put in those who do.

Now this does not mean to put in any milkop or schister whom you may have a pull on; rise above this, be broad enough to differ with your neighbor on some things, and if he has the qualifications and the intelligence to do what is best for your ward put him in and shoulder the responsibility with him, stand up for him give him your sympathy and moral support, and then the best man, any man, will be willing to serve us.

I do not wish, however, to be understood as advocating each wardman having no thought for any other ward but his own. An intelligent representative would never do this, therefore it is important to select men who are broad enough to claim his own rights, but at the same time be able to see the city's needs as a whole paramount to any one section's pet schemes. We need men who will work some other portion of the street other than their own sidewalk, at the same time a man who, if his sidewalk needs it, will work it at the proper time and in the proper manner though the whole city and the world may impugn their motives for so doing.

In conclusion let me urge every one to attend their primaries, select men of intelligence and ability; select men for the place; put them in the place; stand by them, and then, shoulder to shoulder, as one body, let's all march forward in the effort to promote the best interest of our beloved city.

Chas. H. Ireland,
Ch'm. Dem. Com.

A delegation of twenty four women called upon the superintendent of a street railway in Cincinnati the other day and requested him to issue an order forbidding the conductors on his lines to eat onions within twenty four hours of going to work. The superintendent at first refused, but the women sat down in his office until he came to terms.

Patriotism reached its high water mark in Burlington Saturday. A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the raising of a large United States flag and below it a Cuban flag. Great cheering greeted the two flags. Look out for an extraordinary number of volunteers for Alamance.

Mr. H. H. Whittier, the general manager for Dr. Blue Mountain Ipe, was in the city this afternoon arranging for a reappearance of his company in this city. Mr. Whittier says he has a large and strong company and a large tent, affording much better accommodation than the old arrangement. The company will be here for two weeks, beginning next week.

Trial of J. P. Coble.

James M. Coble was tried Saturday afternoon before magistrates Pritchett and Eckel for the murder of Jim Brean. The trial took place in the court house and attracted a large crowd.

Messrs. Barringer and Stedman appeared for the defendant and Judge Bynum and Z. V. Taylor for the state. The magistrates bound the prisoner over to court in a bond of $1000.

It will be remembered that on last Wednesday Mr. Coble came to town and gave himself up to Sheriff Hoskins. Mr. Coble was a constable of Green township and while serving a warrant on Jim Brean, colored, was compelled to shoot and kill him in self defense.

It is not thought Mr. Coble will be convicted of murder, as he will be abundantly able to prove that he killed Brean in order to save himself.

Meeting at Baptist Church.

A large congregation greeted Evangelist Needham at the First Baptist church yesterday and were delighted with the story of the gospel. Mr. Needham tells the "old story" simply, and does not resort to high pressure or sensational methods to draw those who would not otherwise come to hear the gospel. Services will be held daily this week at four and eight p. m. The Bible readings at the afternoon service will be especially helpful to Christians. It is hoped that our people will avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing this celebrated gospel preacher.

Federal Prisoners.

Eight federal prisoners were brought in Saturday night from Statesville by Marshal Millikan. They are all white. The party is composed of five men and three women. Three men and the women were convicted for retailing liquor without license. The other two men are guilty of passing counterfeit money. They, together with the four already here, will leave this week for Raleigh.

A PIC-NIC AND RAIN.

The Excursion Party Spent a Delightful Day in the Mountains.

Notwithstanding the weather the picnic party, consisting of about 250 which left here Saturday morning booked for Mt. Airy granite works, had a delightful time.

About one hour and a half was spent at the quarry in the innocent past time of snapping kodaks at the quarry, stray cattle, beautiful girls and other objects of beauty and many more negatives were secured which will, when developed, serve as puzzle pictures till the next picnic, thereby prolonging the pleasures of the trip.

One devoted pair with a kodak made several snaps, but in their devotion to each other, unfortunately, had the wrong end of the camera to the object, thus taking retrospective views which will, beyond doubt, serve as a memento to them for time to come.

On returning the party halted at Mt. Airy, the gem of the mountains, and then resumed their journey to Pilot Mountain, where they found good appetite and an ample lunch. In the midst of the most of sublime scenery imaginable, with the merry voices of the young folks the repast was spread along by a sparkling fountain and the party sat down with "their razors on the inside pocket to enjoy themselves." During these festivities the rain fell in torrents. Those who were fortunate enough to get in at the Pilot Inn will remember the kindness and hospitality with which they were greeted by the kind lady, Mrs. Ayers.

The party has since decided that on their next trip they will be supplied with a tin roof, mackintoshes, sea-boots, life buoys and canoes.

Our Opening Day

Was a most emphatic success. It was not an opening simply in name, where a handful of old, decrepit or discarded styles were shown, but it was a glorious opening. Every article fresh as the morning dew, and it will go on tomorrow and all the balance of the week with a vigor, with an earnestness created only by bargains superabundant beyond any ever displayed in this city. Our display of

New Silks, Organdies, Lawns, Laces,
etc., etc.

was voted by every lady who attended as the most successful, the most novel and original display ever shown in Greensboro.

All those fetching swaggers and up-to-date styles that would cost double everywhere else, are here tomorrow and all the balance of the week.

We shall never deviate from the policy originally laid down of handling only the best goods.

We know to a certainty that true success must be based upon the substantial rock of quality, and to handle nothing but the best would never satisfy either ourselves or the public.

But such universal popularity as our store has attained in so short a time is not based solely upon carrying the best merchandise, we make it a point to sell at small margins of profit, never making a price on an article until we know it is the lowest figure at which that article can be sold. The public will soon learn to know this.

We heartily thank the people of Greensboro for the hearty welcome they have extended us.

The Hardware News.

PUBLISHED BY ODELL HARDWARE CO.

EDITORIAL.

We have a word to say to the merchants.

You work hard all day, think, plan, devise, buy and sell goods, employ clerks and for what?

Primarily that you may get money.

Is it a very wise plan that these hard earned dollars shall be dumped in a cash drawer to be paid out perhaps without any record's being made.

We have in use a Cash Recorder that beats any Cash "Register" that we have ever seen. We do not claim that it will prevent your being the victim of dishonesty, but it certainly reduces the chance for errors to a minimum.

It greatly facilitates the keeping of the cash account. A bookkeeper who cannot "keep his cash straight" with the aid of this machine should not be allowed to handle cash.

It will pay for itself in a month, in time, temper, wear and tear of the nerves and in actual money.

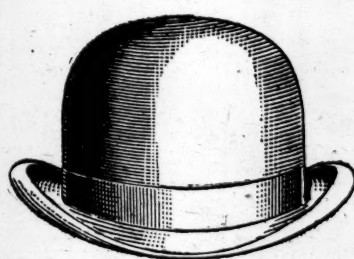

We are in a position to give you an inside price on it.
